CHRIS NEWTON TO LEAD MEDIA AND TECHNOLOGY TEAM

Pembroke Managing Agency is pleased to announce the appointment of Chris Newton to head up its media and technology team. The team focuses on media liability risks, as well as underwriting cyber and network risks, and technology errors and omissions risks.

Chris joins from AXIS where he managed the London based media and technology division. Previously he was Managing Director of Media/Professional's London office and a Board Director of Aon Underwriting Managers. Prior to that he has held a number of roles in the insurance industry, both in the UK and overseas.

Chris said: "I am delighted to join an organisation with such a clarity of purpose and commitment to specialist sectors. Current economic challenges reinforce the need to offer tailored solutions for brokers and their clients alike, and we aim to be in the forefront."

Mark Wheeler, Active Underwriter, said: "Our strategy is to grow our business through diversification and Chris' arrival is a key part of that plan. He is a market leader in his field and this is an exciting and growing market."
